

You are warmly invited to our forthcoming Study Day:

Rameau and the art of French Baroque led by Gerald Place and Helena Brown with Kate Cleeland

Sunday 5th June 2011, 1pm

participation fee - £25:00

Elleray Hall, Elleray Road,
Teddington TW11 OHG

Singers, orchestral players and dancers – all welcome

We will be learning excerpts from Rameau's opera 'Les Indes Galantes' and will be performing them at the end of the afternoon. There will be parallel streams for singers and dancers. Scores provided and solos will be allocated on the day. Observers are welcome for a fee of £10.

If you wish to participate, please detach the tear-off strip below and send to Helena Brown with a cheque, or email her at helena@isleworthbaroque.co.uk to express an interest. If you have any questions please telephone Helena on 020 8580 8429. You can request information about the day via email from Caroline Slater: caroline@isleworthbaroque.co.uk

For more information, including the day's schedule please refer to our website – www.isleworthbaroque.co.uk.
